Fraser

Joan Cope

The Reverend Eileen Nurse

Eileen has been active in the Anglican church for more than 30 years and is one of the Deacons at St. George's in Fort Langley (ordained in June 2005). Her current ministry involves assisting the parish in building the Godly Play program, and developing relationships with the wider community. Eileen worked in the Synod Office for over 20 years and for 14 years of those years was the Administrative Assistant the Bishop. In this position she worked with all levels of our church structure from the parish to the national church and developed a thorough knowledge for all areas of church management and governance. Since leaving the Synod Office in April 2014, Eileen has focused on parish based ministry. Recently she has also provided guidance to various parishes and organisations as they develop their administrative structure. She is a firm believer in the importance of developing administrative structure that supports and strengthens the delivery effective ministry. Eileen is passionate about the role of all baptised people, both clergy and lay, in the life of our church.

Lay Delegates (three to be elected)

Caitlin Reilley Beck

I am presently serving as the Missioner for Children, Youth and Families in the Anglican Diocese of New Westminster and have worked in parish and diocesan children's and youth ministry for the past ten years. Beyond working in youth ministry, I am passionate about drumming, grassroots ecumenism, photography, intersectionality, liturgical geekery, good administration, singing in harmony, empowering young people, godparenting, eating french fries and being a feminist killjoy. Right now, I am a part of the International Anglican Women's Network with whom I have been to the UN Commission on the Status of Women four times and the Anglican Roman Catholic Dialogue in Canada. I believe that every voice is important in the song of God's creation and I aim to empower children and youth to use their voices as leaders in their communities and help older people learn how to listen to them.

Ryan Bowie

Ryan Bowie has been to two previous Diocesan Synods as Youth Delegate for All Saints, Mission. He has lived in four different cities and has been a parish member at five different churches. Ryan has played soccer for 13 years as well as having been in various choirs and bands for over five years, currently singing tenor in a community choir and volunteering for his old high school's music program. In the fall, Ryan is going into his second year at the University of the Fraser Valley majoring in Biology. He aspires to go into Emergency Medicine and travel overseas with the Canadian Military. In July, Ryan begins work at Zajac Ranch; a summer camp for children and youth with medical conditions and disabilities. Ryan would like to say thank you for allowing his name to stand for nomination, and good luck to whomever is nominated.
