The Reverend Karl Przywala

I have a BA Honours degree in Politics from Durham University (1985). I became a C. of E. licensed Lay Reader in 1992 (at the age of 29) and as such was able to do everything a cleric could do other than preside at Holy Communion and be in charge of a parish. This has given me a vision and a heart for authorized lay ministry. I combined this ministry with a career in marketing and market/social research.

My ordination training was in Australia where I lived for eight years. I have both British and Australian citizenship—my third Commonwealth citizenship is a work in progress! I have been Rector of Holy Trinity, Vancouver since February last year. Immediately prior to that, I was Incumbent of six rural parishes in the Church of England Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham.

I have participated in both Diocesan Clergy Conferences since my arrival, and the Diocesan School for Parish Development. I was (pleasantly) surprised to be asked to stand for Diocesan Council – it wasn't something I had sought. Apparently, it is felt that I have some useful experience and attributes to contribute! Amongst these, I would list an emphasis on evangelism and church development – keeping the main thing the main thing. If elected, I will endeavour to make a positive contribution to the Council's life and work.

Jane Osler

In 2010 and 2013 it was my privilege to be a lay delegate from New Westminster to General Synod. Those roles resulted in appointments in 2011 to the Anglican Church of Canada's Vision 2019 Implementation Team, in 2012 as a participant in the Primate's consultation "Embodying God's Call - Aligning General Synod Structures for God's Mission Today", and most recently, as co-chair of the Planning & Agenda Team for the Council of General Synod (CoGS).

I have been involved as a volunteer with the Anglican Church since my youth, and with this Diocese shortly after moving here in the mid-90's. In my parish, I have been a member of Parish Council, Rector's Warden, and chair of the Cathedral Endowment Fund, and continue to contribute as a volunteer. In 2000 I became involved with the Diocese on a variety of committees, including: Stewards In Action, Communications, Diocesan Council, Grants & Loans, and Ministry Resources; I also co-chaired Plan 2018.

These roles have given me a wonderful opportunity to see how all areas of the Anglican Church are connected. How work in a parish integrates with the Diocese and the Church nationally, as well as how the work of the Church nationally is brought to life in our diocese and parishes.

As a delegate to General Synod, I understand I do not "represent" a constituency when gathered at General Synod; and I believe my involvement with the church has provided me with a good understanding of the issues to be addressed, and as such can make a contribution.

In my spare time I work as a management consultant with a focus on marketing and customer experience.

Alex Starr

I am currently the provincial representative for Council of General Synod, having been elected at the last General Synod in Ottawa. I hope to attend the next General Synod in Toronto, in order to see my effort Ottawa and over the past few years on national committees come full circle in Toronto. I am passionate about upcoming issues for Toronto 2016, including new pathways for indigenous ministry with the Anglican Church. I am especially passionate about the upcoming report of the marriage commission and changes to the marriage canon. As a gay man, raised in and committed to the Anglican Church, I seek to attend General Synod to offer my personal voice and uniquely connected story to these discussions. Peace with you always.
